

REGULATIONS
on the organization of refereeing activity during the International Contest of NBC reconnaissance teams of NBC protection services "Safe Environment"
within the Army International Games - 2019

I. General provisions

1. Army International Games are complex international competitions between the teams of state-participants' armed forces in various military specialties, in course of which the international Contests (referred to below as "Competition") are conducted.

One of the basic and necessary elements of the Army International Games (referred to below as "Games"), without which they can only be regarded as entertainment, is refereeing activity.

This document is developed on the basis of the "Games Regulations". To provide objective refereeing in course of the Games, it specifies the structure and determines the relations between the referees, their rights, responsibilities, and other issues concerning the refereeing activities during the Games (competition).

1.1. The official languages of the Games are Russian, English, and the national language of the host country.

1.2. Refereeing is done by the Panel of Referees in accordance with the operating rules and Regulations of the Games (Contest).

1.3. Refereeing principles:

impartiality;

publicity;

democratic nature;

unity of approaches to the evaluation of the results;

joint leadership;

objectivity;

justice;

tolerance;

transparency;

1.4. To objectively evaluate the actions and results of the participants, the refereeing system is organized on the 2-level basis, comprising the Panel of Referees of the Games and the Panel of Referees of the Competition, which are formed in the period to the start of the Contest by the representatives of the countries-participants of the Games.

1.4.1. The composition of the Panel of Referees of the Competition is equal to the number of the countries-participants of the Competition, and includes a representative from every team. Typically, they are elected from the functionaries in charge of combat training in the respective national armed forces.

1.4.2. To provide for the activity of the Panel of Referees of the Competition, the Secretariat is appointed, including the Head of the Secretariat, 2 members of technical staff, Russian and English translators, other languages - if necessary. Additionally, the field referees are appointed to provide for the Panel of Referees of the Competition.

1.4.3. The Panel of Referees of the Games is headed by the Chief Referee of the Games, the Panel of Referees of the Competition is headed by the Chief Referee of the Competition. There are no other panels of referees. The organizer of the competition cannot influence the decisions of the Panel of Referees and does not participate in its activities.

1.4.4. The assigned Chief Referee of the Games is from the Russian Federation - organizer country of the Games. The Chief Referee of the Competition is elected by open majority voting, typically, of the host country.<sup>1</sup>

1.5. Duties of the Panel of Referees:

1.5.1. Providing a planned procedure for the competition in accordance with the approved program (league table) of the Contest.

1.5.2. Enabling objectively equal conditions, securing a just Contest for the competitors, as well as observing demanded ethical norms and moral standards.

1.5.3. Fulfilling conditions of the Games program and the procedure of determining the individual (team) results.

1.5.4. Adhering to the rules of the Games and the Contest, safety instructions and approved protocols of the competitions.

1.5.5. Providing objectiveness in determining the winners.

1.5.6. Determining:

the winners of the Contest stages and the Contest according to the minimal time achieved in the result of the Contest taking into consideration the penalty time charged for the failures (violations) in adhering to the approved standards (conditions) of the Contest. The first place is given to the team which has the highest score; team with the lowest score is considered as the last team. If when the results are determined and two teams have the same score, then the best is chosen by the highest score in the overall standing. If two teams have the same score in the overall standing, the winner is the team which achieved the highest score in the relay race. According to the mentioned above, a team takes the respective place at the league table of the Contest.

The final protocol, signed by all members of the Panel of Referees, is approved by the Chief Referee.

The national team - winner of the Games - according to the rating, in the overall medal standing after all Contests have finished.

1.5.7. Considering protests (appeals) on issues considering the procedure and rules of the Contests or the results of the participants.

1.6. The Panel of Referees is entitled to demand from the Contest Organizer to enable objective and equal conditions in competitions for all participant teams. The decision of the Panel of Referees is obligatory for the Organizer, responsible for the Contest.

1.7. These Regulations, after their study, are certified in the written form by the representatives of participant countries of the Games, and thusly it is assured they unconditionally conform to the rules, unified for all.

1.7.1. Amendments to these Regulations can be passed by the decision of the Panel of Referees of the Contest after open majority voting, and in coordination with the Chief Referee of the Games.

II. Organization of refereeing activities

2.1.1. The work of the Panel of Referees starts with the determining of quorum (no less than 70% of the referees) and after approving agenda. A member of the Panel can introduce their oral or written remarks as to any question in the agenda. A member of the Panel of Referees, who proposed introducing an issue to the agenda, must be provided with an opportunity to justify their position. The decision of introducing suggestions into the agenda of the Panel (including the issues concerning the Panel's rules of procedure) are passed through open majority voting of the Panel.

2.1.2. Head of Delegation (Team Leader) can enter a proposal to replace a referee due to their inability to perform their functions. A referee can be replaced only once during the Contest.<sup>2</sup>

2.1.3. After the applications for participation in the Contest (Appendix 1) were considered, a participation approval protocol is processed, signed by the members of the Panel of Referees, and approved by the Chief Referee of the Contest.

2.1.4. The Panel of Referees is entitled to demand from the Heads of Delegations (Team Leaders) to present all necessary documents to formalize the participation approval.

2.1.5. The Team Leader is entitled to apply to the Panel of Referees regarding the disputed matters. In case of unsatisfactory decision, the applicant may appeal with the respective application to the Panel of the Games.

2.1.6. During their sessions, the Panel of Referees of the Games consider, according to the applications by the Team Leaders and Heads of Delegations, the disputed matters concerning the organization and procedure of the Contests, and keep records of the intermediate results to form the rating of national teams in the Games (Contest).

2.1.7. All results are considered as preliminary until the control lists of field referees are checked. Results of the Contest are formalized by a protocol, signed by all members of the Panel of Referees and are approved by the Chief Referee of the Contest (Appendix 2).

2.1.8. If there are disputes as to the solution to a question, the final decision is made by the Panel's voting, its decision cannot be discussed or be under appeal.
